This band are to a great extent masters of the city, the Police being either afraid of them or instructed to treat them with a most meek and loving kindness.

> It is high time that our citizens enquired into this business, and ascertained what terms of mutual considerationn and service exist between the most lawless and dangerous combination of our City on the ene hand, and our highest Executive authorities on the other. We hear, for instance, that Alderman Purdy has twice recently discharged Mr. Michael Waish from the Watch-House, where he was regularly under detention, in opposition to the remonstrances of the Captain of the Watch, in command. We hear that a determination resently formed by a convocation at the Pewter Mug groggery to teardown the office of the American for some alleged iosuit to the late Tyler Procession, was only overruled by the affectionate entreaties and remonstrances of our efficient Mayor.
